6

The Sword and Dagger Guard: The Sword that offers first is Defended by y^e Dagger 7

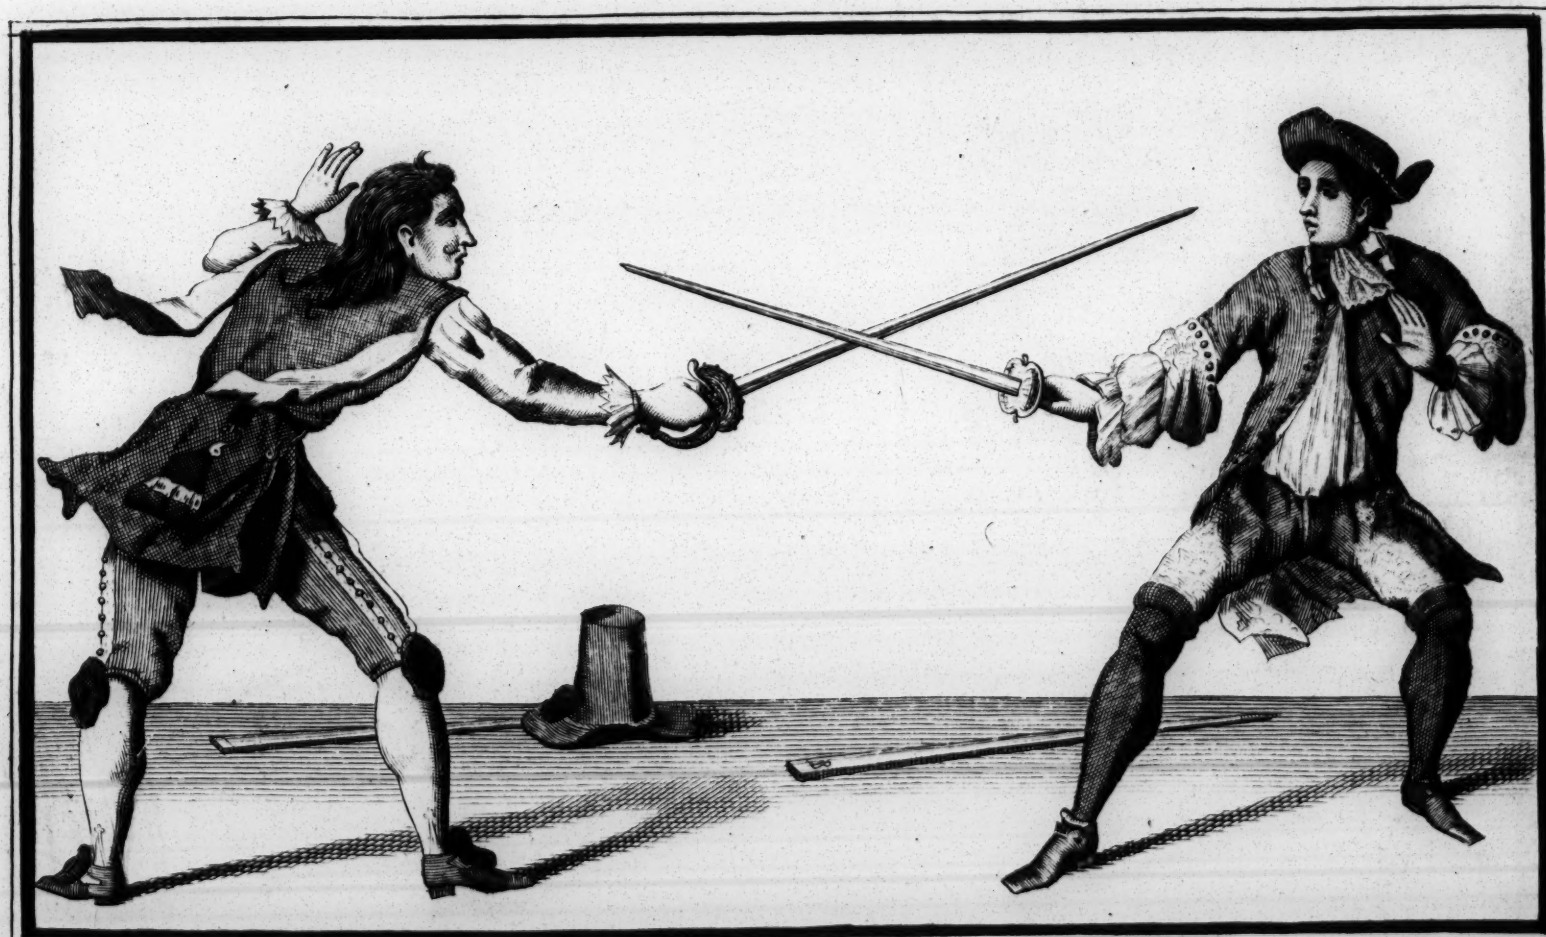

Here a Feirce is cutt off by a Cart, by turning about the left foot (with the Body) in making the Pass 8

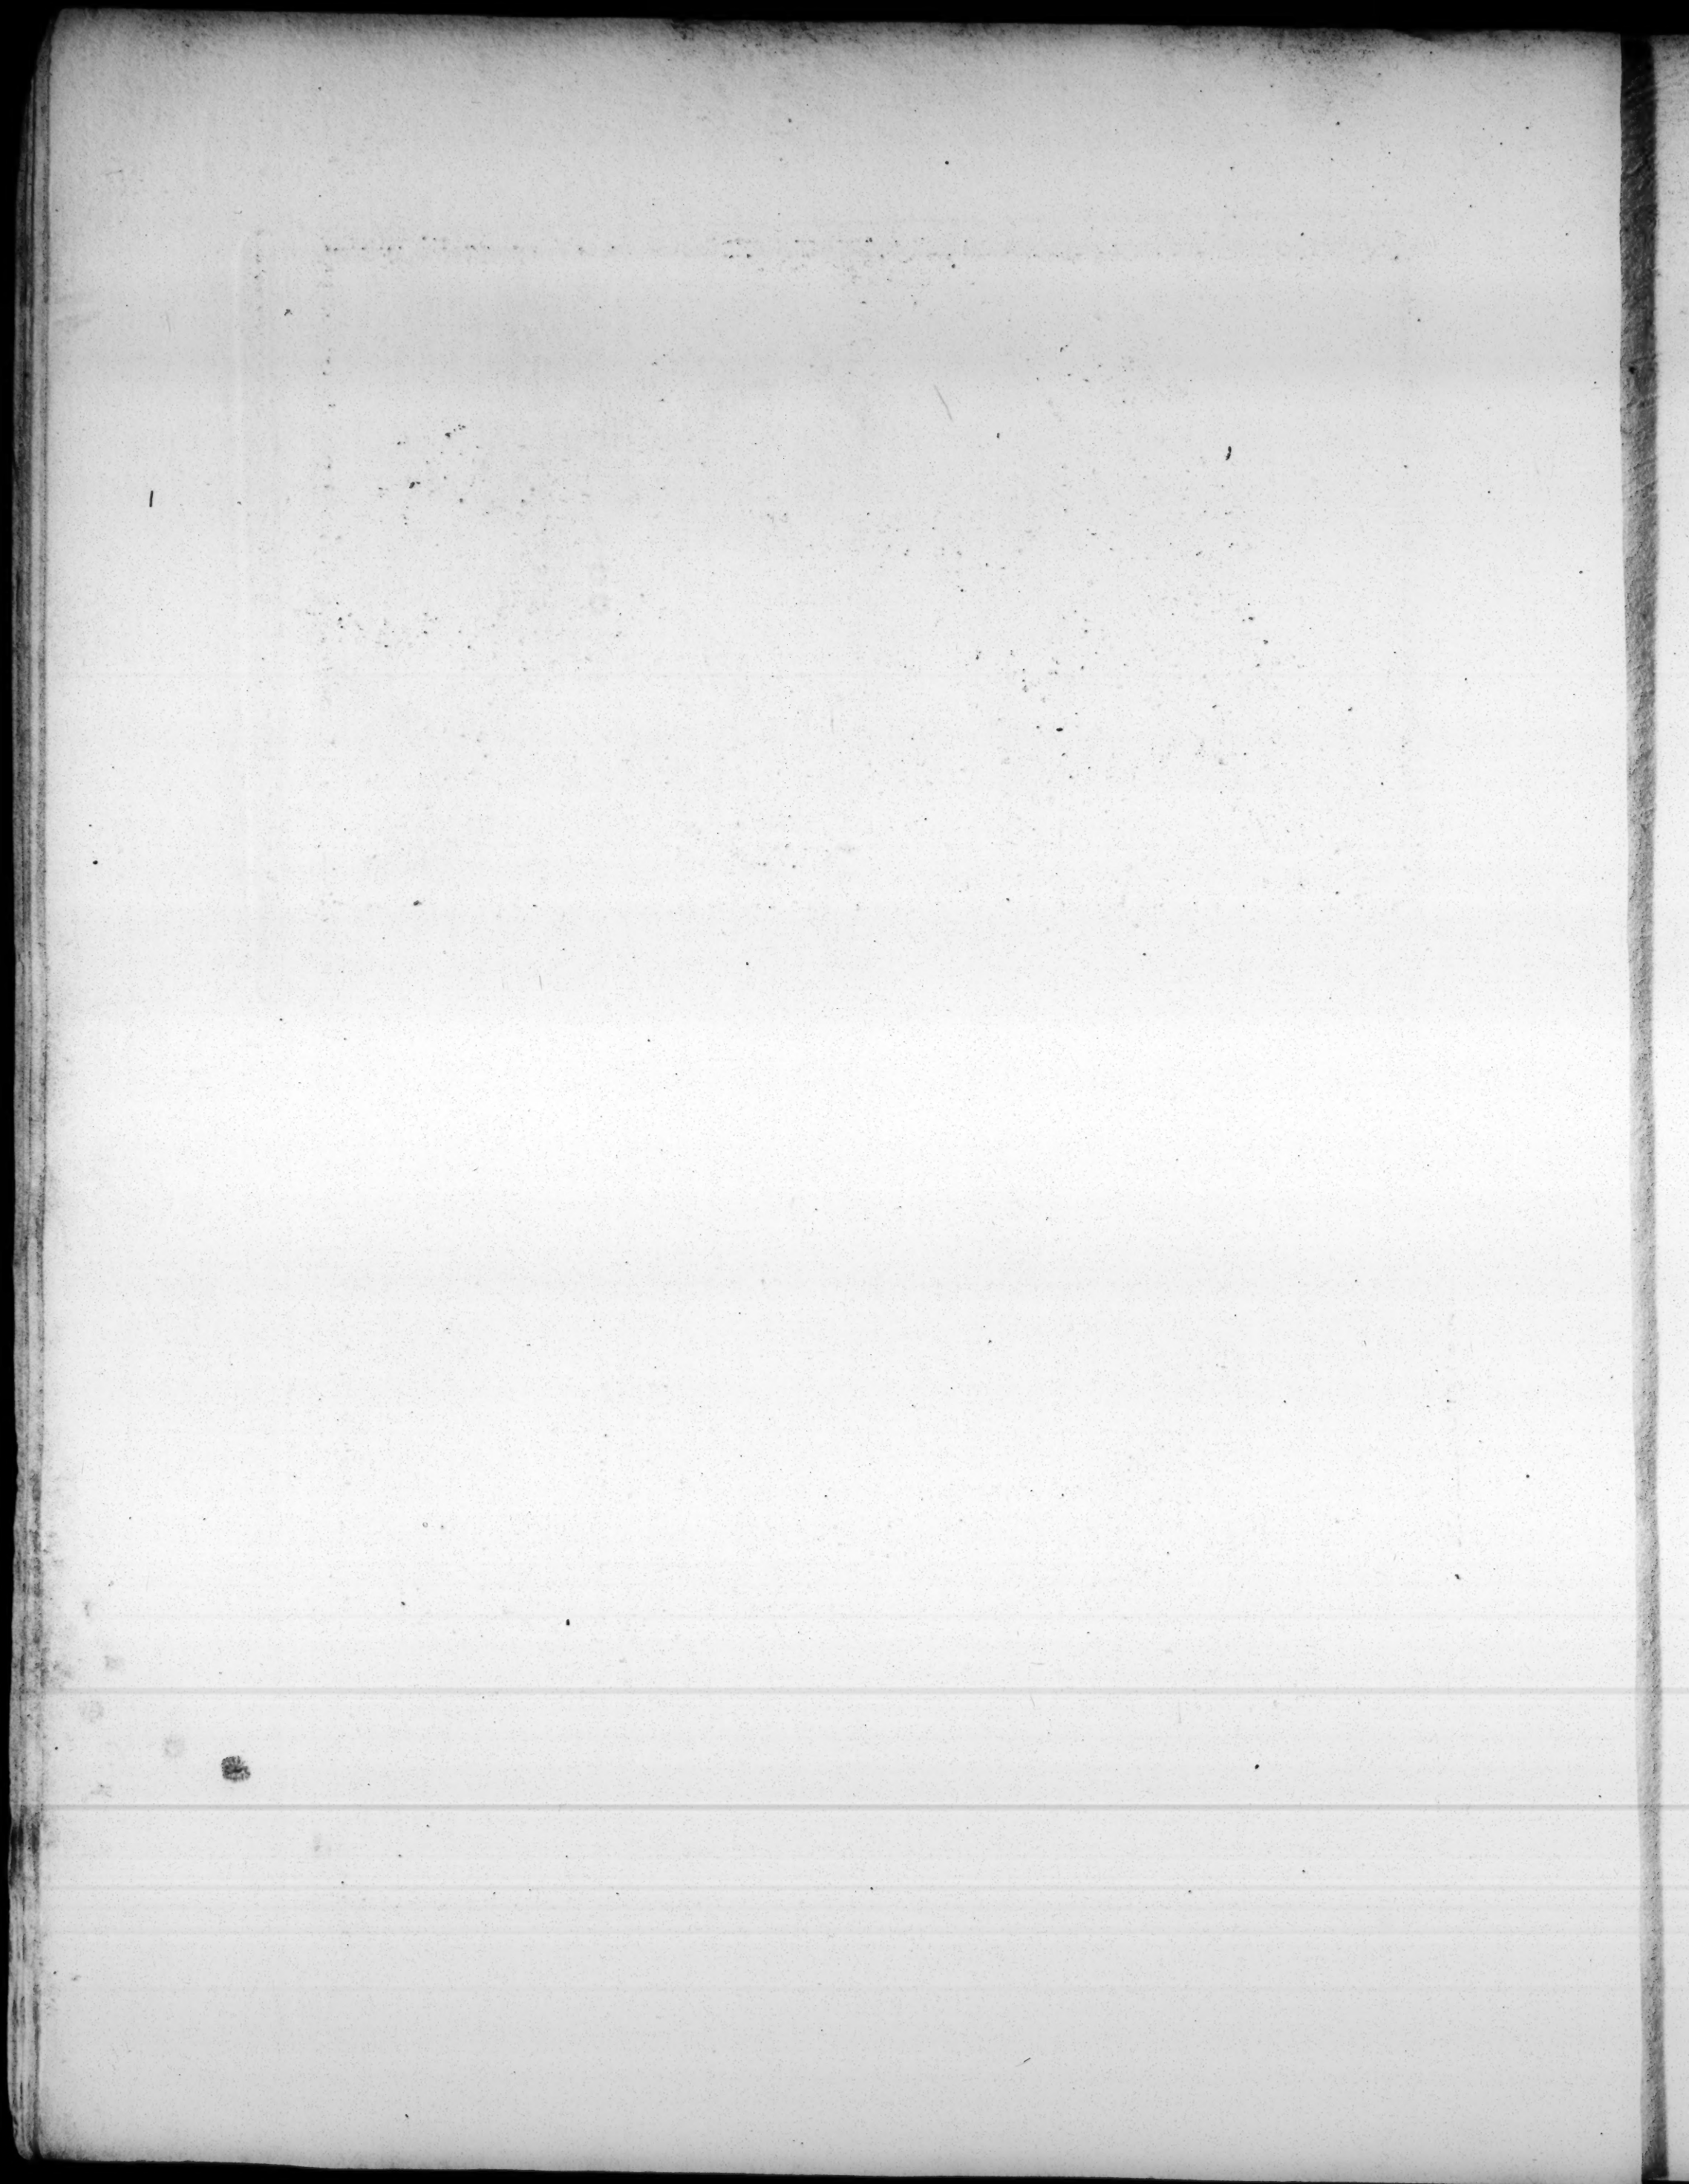

The Pass here given is a Teirce, which on the inside of the Defendants Sword ought to have been made in Cart, but that the Dagger of the Offendant does secure it in this Figure .

Here is the French Guard (the Knees being bent but very little) and the Guard and Posture does prevent a pass on the outside of the Sword, so that which soever of the two shall make a Pass, he must give it in Second, or by a disengage in Cart.
